

14th Annual Postgraduate Conference

Medievalism Transformed

PRIFYSGOL
BANGOR
UNIVERSITY

Friday 8th June, 2018

9.30am Cofrestru / Registration

10.00am Panel 1 :

David Ellis (Bangor, School of Philosophy and Religion): 'Truth and Logic in the Early Modern Period: How a Consideration Benefits our Understanding of Truth and Logic in Contemporary Science'

Sadie Jarrett (Bangor, Institute for the Study of Welsh Estates) : "He hath often heard": Doubt and self-interest in the seventeenth-century gentry'

11.00am Tea a coffi / Tea and coffee

11:45am Cyweirnod / Keynote: Dr. Joseph Sterrett (Aarhus University, Denmark): "I take thee at thy word": Epistemological trust in Romeo and Juliet'

12.30pm Cinio / Lunch

2.00pm Panel 2:

Sean Ferguson (Bangor, School of English Literature): 'Gawain and the Game: An Exploration of Choice in Two Gawain Poems'

Inigo Purcell (Cambridge): 'Rumour and Lack of Doubt in the Stanzaic Morte Arthur'

Molly Heaton (Bangor, School of English Literature): 'Spectres of Rome: Presentations of Roman and Post-Roman Wales in The Misfortunes of Elphin'

3.00pm Tea a coffi / Tea and coffee

3.30pm Panel 3:

Timothy E. Jones (Cardiff): 'The Fechtbuch as exempla of multi and cross- cultural knowledge system in the Late Medieval Period'

Karen Waring (Bangor, School of English Literature): 'Structuring Knowledge: Forms of Authority in The Boke of Husbandry, 1523-1598'

Dr. Michael Durrant (Bangor, School of English Literature): 'Shakespeare and Simmel on Secrets and Lies'

5.00pm Diwedd y Gynhadledd / End of conference

7.00pm Cinio Nos Opsiynol / Optional Evening Meal: Canolfan Rheolaeth / Management centre